SINA HOTELS REOPENS IN VIAREGGIO

After undergoing extensive renovation works recently, the 4-star superior Hotel Astor in Viareggio, on the Tuscan coast, is relaunching itself as a conference and events hotel. Part of Sina Hotels, an Italian group of luxury hotels housed in historic palazzi, the Astor offers its corporate customers a meeting centre that can seat more than 200 people and is equipped with all the latest technology. Its rooms are all modular, with autonomous air conditioning systems, natural daylight, electronically controlled blackout system and internet and videoconferencing connections. The hotel has 68 guestrooms, including 15 suites, all tastefully furnished and benefiting from panoramic sea views, as well as a sun terrace, indoor heated swimming pool and the La Conchiglia restaurant, which is renowned for its seafood specialities.
