

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a person holding a glass of red wine. The glass is filled with a deep red liquid and has condensation droplets on its surface. The person's hand is visible at the bottom right, holding the stem of the glass. In the background, another person's hand is visible, holding a glass, suggesting a social gathering or a wine tasting event. The overall tone is warm and inviting.

The Castello/Castle is located in the province of Biella. This historical castle dates back to the 13th century and has witnessed many significant events throughout its long history. Originally built as a defensive fortress, it was later transformed into a noble residence. The castle's structure and architecture reflect the medieval charm of the era, with its impressive towers, stone walls, and scenic views of the surrounding countryside.

The estate surrounding the castle includes vineyards that produce a variety of high-quality wines, benefiting from the favorable climate and soil of the Biella hills. The winemaking tradition at Castellengo has been preserved and refined over generations. The winery is known for its production of local wines, such as Barbera, Nebbiolo, and Erbaluce, showcasing the unique characteristics of the region's terroir.

Visitors can enjoy a full experience at the castle by participating in a wine tour, where they can learn about the winemaking process and taste the estate's wines. Following the tour, guests can enjoy a delicious lunch at their agriturismo, where traditional Piedmontese cuisine is served. The lunch typically features local specialties, including hearty dishes made with fresh, seasonal ingredients, paired with the estate's wines for an authentic culinary experience.

This combination of history, wine, and gastronomy makes a memorable destination for those seeking to explore the rich heritage and flavors of the Piedmont region.
