

A close-up photograph of several truffles and a truffle slicer. The truffles are dark brown with a rough, cracked texture. One truffle in the foreground is sliced, revealing a light-colored, marbled interior. The truffle slicer is a metal tool with a circular blade and a handle, resting on a light-colored burlap surface. The background is a neutral, textured surface.

DAY TRIP

TRUFFLE AND WINE

WHAT IS INCLUDED:

All transfers and experiences as detailed in the itinerary

All English speaking guides, experts and entrance fees

ITINERARY

9:00 - Departure - 1 hour

Private transfer to Vignale Monferrato

Often overlooked by the usual tourist trail, discovering the Monferrato area is a sublime journey through the senses. Gentle, rolling hills dotted with small medieval towns and castles evoke a glorious idyll. Recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage site for its cultural landscape, the Infernots and centuries-old vineyards.

10:00 - 3 hours

Private visit at a Biological wines farm since 1860

Located on the rolling hills of Monferrato, UNESCO heritage since 2015, the family owned company produces organic wines in respect of nature and tradition since 1860 in Vignale Monferrato.

Truffle Hunting: guided tour in English to the natural truffle grounds, experiencing a real "truffle picking" along a scenic trail with rest areas.

Light lunch: at the end with the trifolau and the owners family you will taste local cold cuts, mountain cheeses, Piedmontese breadsticks and a good glass of their bio wine.

Truffles: 01 February - 20 September: Black Truffle / 21 September - 31 January : White Truffle

13:00 - Departure - 1 hour

Private transfer to Canelli

14:00 - 1 hour

Private visit to a winery with their underground cathedral

The town of Canelli in the Piedmont region of Italy is renowned for its historic wine cellars and underground tunnels. These underground spaces, often referred to as "cantine" (cellars), are an integral part of Canelli's winemaking tradition and have contributed to the town's recognition as a UNESCO World Heritage site. The underground cellars of Canelli date back to the 19th century and were primarily constructed for the aging and storage of sparkling wines, particularly the famous Italian sparkling wine, Moscato d'Asti. The unique geological characteristics of the region, with its layers of tuffaceous rock, provided an ideal environment for the creation of these expansive cellars.

15:00 - Departure - 1 hour 30 minutes

Private transfer back to Hotel

PRICE

Starting from € 1.400 for 2 people

FOR BOOKING:

info@explorezefiro.com

+393756861797

TERMS & CONDITIONS

I acknowledge that the requested services/experiences are provided and operated with full entrepreneurial, organizational, and economic autonomy by a 3rd party company named Explore Zefiro Ltd. I acknowledge that Explore Zefiro Ltd. is a fully independent legal entity, separated from the Sina Villa Matilde hotel, which is owned by Società Internazionale Nuovi Alberghi S.p.A.

I further acknowledge that I have been informed of, and expressly accept, that all relations, matters, and remarks concerning the requested services - including their execution, the economic aspects and any possible contractual issues - must be addressed directly with Explore Zefiro Ltd.

Moreover, I acknowledge Società Internazionale Nuovi Alberghi S.p.A. to have no liability with regards to these specific services/experiences and to release it from any civil and criminal responsibility arising from the requested services/experiences. Notably, this includes, any damage caused to persons or property, and/or caused by injuries, fatal injuries suffered or caused by third parties due to unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure. Additionally, I waive Società Internazionale Nuovi Alberghi S.p.A. from any claims for refunds, indemnities and/or for any compensation for pecuniary or non-pecuniary damage caused by or derived from the performance, non-performance, or improper performance of the requested services/experiences or any obligations or responsibilities attributed to Explore Zefiro Ltd. in any manner and for any reason connected with the requested services/experiences.