ROMA

THE LEGENDARY RAPHAEL VATICAN MUSEUMS – SANT’AGOSTINO BASILICA

Precisely 500 years from his death, we pay homage to Raphael – arguably the most talented and gifted artist of his era. Sina Bernini Bristol has the pleasure to offer a magical tour evoking both art and history on a discovery journey of one of the greatest Masters of the Renaissance together with an expert guide, you will be able to visit the Vatican Museums, with a special focus on the artist’s wonderful work. Explore the stunning Vatican Pinacoteca, whose collection grew richer and richer in the years reaching its current nucleus of 460 paintings, from Giotto to Leonardo, from Caravaggio to, you guessed it, the legendary Raphael. Proceed to the mesmerizing “Raphael’s Rooms”, a breathtaking sequence of frescoes commissioned by the Pope himself, specifically to decorate these spectacular spaces. Do not miss the School of Athens, one of the most celebrated Renaissance works, in which you can spot the self-portrait of the artist. Last, but not least, you will also get to marvel at the unique Sistine Chapel, realized by another incredible artist, Michelangelo. After the Vatican Museums you will witness another creation by the artist: head to the Basilica of St. Agostino, where waiting for you is a magnificent and powerful 16th century fresco featuring the prophet Isaiah. Conclude the tour with an outstanding dining experience at our The Flair - Rooftop Restaurant located on Sina Bernini Bristol’s panoramic terrace.
