

SINA
CENTURION PALACE
VENEZIA

From 8th-25th February, Venice Carnival turns the Italian City of Water into a parade of mask and costumes, with live music, dance, parties and masquerades filling the canal-lined streets. Once Palazzo Genovese, Sina Centurion Palace, is the ideal hotel to reset following a day of lively carnival activity. Located in the authentic and artistic Dorsoduro District, this 5-star luxury hotel has a private courtyard garden, many rooms opening onto the Grand Canal, and award-winning canal-side Antinoo's Restaurant helmed by Chef Giancarlo Bellino where the traditional Venetian menu (with Tiramisu of course) is a must. Sina Centurion Palace is also near the famous Peggy Guggenheim Museum, a sanctuary holding iconic European and American art from the 20th century, great for a retreat of calm amongst the buzz of "Carnevale di Venezia".

NEW for 2020 Venice Carnival: Launching at the much loved "Carnevale di Venezia 2020" (Feb 8th-25th) and thereafter available throughout 2020, Sina Centurion Palace are offering guests a bespoke experience through an exclusive partnership with celebrated local mask maker Ca' Macana. The hotel will organize a private 2-hour workshop where guests will learn about the history of Venice's vibrant and elaborate masks, which have enjoyed a privileged and unique position in the city's cultural history. In addition to exploring the treasure trove of incredible masks, guests will have the opportunity to make and personalize their own masks from scratch, using the techniques taught by experts at Ca' Macana to create the ultimate Venetian souvenir. € 175,00 per person.
